Agreement of Cooperation Between
Chulalongkorn University,
Institut Teknologi Bandung,
National University of Singapore,
Universitas Gadjah Mada,
Universiti Malaya,
and
Kyoto University

The purpose of this Agreement is to facilitate the smooth implementation of the ASEAN University Network (AUN) – Kyoto University (KU) Student Mobility Program toward Human Security Development, a program supported by the Re-Inventing Japan Project of the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science, and Technology of Japan. This Agreement aims to foster globally active human resources, and to assure the quality of systems for mutual recognition of credits and grade management under the MOU between the AUN Member universities and Kyoto University. To that effect, Chulalongkorn University (CU), Institut Teknologi Bandung (ITB), National University of Singapore (NUS), Universitas Gadjah Mada (UGM), Universiti Malaya (UM), and Kyoto University (KU) hereby agree to the following:

1. Based upon the principles of respect, independence and mutual benefit, CU, ITB, NUS, UGM, UM, and KU will engage in the following activities:
   (1) Development of a double master’s degree programme;
   (2) Development of courses with credit transfer;
   (3) The holding of workshops and symposia to facilitate items (1) and (2).
2. These activities will focus on the field of human security, including:
   (1) Energy and the environment,
   (2) Food and water resources,
   (3) Public health.
3. In order to carry out any activities under this Agreement, detailed plans will be drawn up through negotiation between the universities concerned in each specific case.
4. This Agreement shall impose no financial obligations on CU, ITB, NUS, UGM, UM or KU. Further details of funding will be established in separate written agreements as described in Article 6. of this Agreement.
5. This Agreement will take effect from the date of its signing, and will remain in effect until the end of March 2017. The Agreement may be amended, renewed, or terminated at any time upon mutual consent between all parties.
6. It is agreed that the terms and conditions of any programme or activity initiated this Agreement shall be established in separate written agreements to be negotiated and agreed upon by both Parties and/or any third parties, wherever applicable. The decision to participate in any programme or activity shall always be at the sole discretion of each Party.

7. This Agreement is made in seven identical copies written in English. All parties will sign each copy and retain one copy for themselves.

8. Signed in Kyoto, Japan on the Twenty-Second Day of January in the Year of Two Thousand and Thirteen.
