ASEAN Experiential Learning Programme

Project Profile

authentic learning experiences everywhere

hands-on activities

a cultural experience with new friends

What is it?

The AUN AELP is a biennial youth activity initiated by AUN-SAN, which aims to serve as a platform for students to undergo experiential learning through knowledge sharing and hands on activities pertinent to social, economic and environmental issues in ASEAN region.

What are its goals?

To provide a unique, outside the classroom learning experience for ASEAN undergraduates that will:

- Engage students in experiential learning and immersion
- Provide a platform for knowledge sharing on common issues pertinent to ASEAN region
- Provide opportunities for students to apply knowledge gained when they go back home for possible national and/or regional follow up projects

Expected Output

- Approximately 50 participants have undergone hand-on experiential learning and cultural immersion
- Approximately 15+ local experts, lecturers, and professionals have been invited to interact with participants
- 5+ cultural exposures, hand-on experiences, and workshops

Expected Outcomes

- Participants develop their skill set through experiential learning and hands-on activities
- Participants gain both soft and hard skills from the programme
- Participants create strong networking between students and universities in ASEAN
- Gain life-changing and eye-opening cross border experiences
- Participants are able to apply and utilise knowledges, skills, and experiences gained from AELP programme in real life and for future use

Impact (as aligned with AUN Impacts)

- ASEAN awareness
- Lifelong learning in Higher Education
- Information and knowledge exchange
- Networking, and knowledge transfer
- Education for sustainable development

With the ASEAN Experiential Learning Programme, students will see that learning can happen anywhere and not exclusive to the classroom.

Date	Q3
Frequency	Biennially
Duration	7 days including travel
Host	AUN30 Member University
Participants	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Approximately 50 participants comprising AUN30 undergraduates <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A maximum of 2 students from AUN 30 Member Universities 1 faculty member may be nominated to accompany student(s) 3 representatives from the AUN Secretariat
Format of Activities	The design of the AELP programme activities allow students to enhance ASEAN awareness by increasing their competency, knowledge, and understanding of ASEAN identity and sensitivity to different cultures, languages, and religions as well as increasing cross-cultural communication and leadership skills. The knowledge gained and shared throughout the programme also helps enable collaboration and long-term networking among the participants. Main activities of this event comprise: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A pre-assignment which helps prepare students for the relevant topics. This is an optional activity but consider including it if the topic is particularly difficult or inaccessible. A variety of on-site activities including briefings, site visits, interviews, immersion and hand-on activities, simulations or sharing and reflection activities, and presentations. A post-event assignment which includes acting as change agents for their respective student bodies and providing feedback to the organizing team to better improve the quality of the event in successive iterations. An example of the 2nd AUN AELP programme is provided as Annex 1.
