Foreword

Welcome to the ASEAN University Network 2014-2015
Annual Report

It is my great pleasure to present the fruits of our labour in contribution to higher education and human resource development in the ASEAN region with this years' AUN Annual Report from July 2014 to June 2015.

The year 2015 will mark the 20th anniversary of the AUN. A lot has happened in the past two decades and it happened at a considerable pace. Since its inception, AUN has grown and branched out our activities, engagements, and collaborations across ASEAN region and beyond. The Annual Report highlights the resources of our network and recent developments including quality assurance system development, youth activities, academic collaborations, regional and global policy platforms, as well as multilateral and bilateral cooperation. This presents how we are up to in meeting our purpose of being - which is to be an implementing agency of ASEAN that promotes higher education cooperation and development to enhance regional integration.

It is important to acknowledge that our success is the product of collaborative and collective achievements. Hence, we here express our deepest appreciation for AUN members, associate partners, as well as supporting organisations and agencies who have contributed to such a great success.

With the ASEAN Economic Community to materialize by 2015, I see that the AUN in co-operation with our partners has great potentials to further explore mutual development opportunities and advance our cooperation to uplift regional higher education standards to the next level.

I am looking forward to working with all of our members and partners to transform our region and I am confident that together we can make it happen.

Assoc. Prof. Piniti Ratananukul, Ph.D

Secretary-General, Office of Higher Education Commission, Thailand, and the Chairman of the AUN Board of Trustees

A year has passed and might I say it has been an eventful year. With this year's annual report, allow me to share with you some of the highlights of this year's achievements that have been collectively accomplished throughout 2014-2015.

It is our mission to develop Quality Assurance System and Mechanisms to uplift higher education standard among ASEAN countries which is why, AUN-QA serves as the standard for QA system practiced within the AUN Member Universities and AUN-QA Associate Members. It is officially recognised by not only ASEAN Senior Official Meeting on Education (SOM-ED) and ASEAN Education Ministers Meeting (ASED), but also extended to the ASEAN Plus Three Senior Officials Meeting on Education (SOM-ED+3) and ASEAN Plus Three Education Ministers Meeting (ASED+3). The team has put much time and efforts to improving the quality of higher education within the region which is one of our most important tasks here at the AUN Hence, it is with pride to say that, 161 programme have been assessed in 27 universities across 8 countries (by the end of 2015).

On another note, the AUN ASEAN Credit Transfer System (ACTS) serves as a student platform to enhance and facilitate student mobility across ASEAN with the primary goal to reduce barriers for student in academic mobility. The ACTS has now over 14,000 courses available for both undergraduate and graduate studies in various fields.

Furthermore, as part of its expansion plan, during the 6th ACTS Steering Committee Meeting, Kyoto University, Japan joined in the system allowing the mobility of students with credit transfer between ASEAN and Japan. With its increasing demand and attention, the ACTS continues to prepare the system in a mission to welcome all universities across the ASEAN region to benefit in both academic and cultural immersion. This in return will promote harmony and understanding towards an uplifted ASEAN spirit in the region.

Moreover, an expansion of the number of networks under the AUN due to the the growing demand for active academic cooperation focused on specific field. This demand is focused to promote collaborative studies, research, and educational programmes in the priority areas identified by ASEAN. Aside from AUN-QA and ACTS, six active thematic networks are currently in place, namely ASEAN University Network for Business and Economics (AUN-BE), AUN Southeast Asia Engineering Education

Network (AUN/SEED-Net), AUN Inter-Library Online (AUNILO) AUN University Social Responsibility & Sustainability (AUN-USR&S), AUN Human Rights Networks (AUNHRE) and AUN Intellectual Property Network (AUNIP). We have recently launched and established the new thematic network which is the AUN Health Promotion Network (AUN HPN) in 2014. The AUN HPN aims to serve as a discussion platform for stakeholders who involve in health promotion activities in various stakeholders and channels.

With the constant development of the programmes, supporting projects and conferences carried out by the AUN and Dialogue Partners. It has created new opportunities and overcoming challenges in enhancing higher education cooperation within ASEAN and beyond.

As the Executive Director of AUN, I would like to emphasize that the achievements of the network are a sweet reminder of the hard work we have instilled in the road to success. With this, AUN will continue to promote the creation of a knowledge-based society, ASEAN awareness, generous investment on the people of ASEAN, and creation of platforms for academic collaboration. Furthermore, we will continue to promote student mobility with a touch of quality, develop common understanding of key regional issues, and meet the demands of the region by expansion through its thematic networks. Being true to its mission, ASEAN University Network will continue to exert its best efforts to serve as an effective and efficient gateway to higher education collaboration in ASEAN and beyond through the years to come.

Thank you so much.

ASEAN University Network (AUN) In Brief

During the 4th ASEAN Summit in 1992, ASEAN leaders called for the strengthening of the region through the promotion of human resource development and higher education. This aspiration has led to the signing of the Charter of the ASEAN University Network and thus the establishment of ASEAN University Network (AUN) in November 1995 with the AUN Secretariat as the main coordinating and monitoring agency established in Bangkok, Thailand. Since its establishment, AUN, the network of leading universities, has been serving as ASEAN's implementing agency in the field of higher education for the region's move towards ASEAN Community.

In terms of organisational structure, the structure can be categorised into 3 levels. Firstly, AUN Board of Trustees (AUN-BOT) serves as policy-making body comprised of:

- 10 university representatives, from each ASEAN Country, designated by the government of 10 ASEAN Countries
- The Secretary-General of ASEAN
- The Chairperson of AUN Board of Trustee (Secretary-General of the Office of the Higher Education Commission, Thailand)
- The Chairperson of Senior Official Meeting on Education (SOM-ED)
- Director of Southeast Asian Ministers of Education Organisation (SEAMEO)
- The Executive Director of the AUN Secretariat

At implementing level, AUN Member Universities participate and implement the programmes and activities under AUN. Currently, AUN membership has extended to 30 Member Universities as follows:

Board Members at the 30th ASEAN University Network (AUN) Board of Trustees Meeting, Cebu, the Philippines

China-AUN Scholarship 2014/2015 Student Testimonials:

1. Mr. Theab Sovannareth (Cambodia)

For my best experience, about your program is user-friendly, easy to access and fast coordinating with high quality services and clear information. The program has already performed a great job in coordinating with all students. The only wish and suggestion from me is that "on behalf of Cambodian student and for the better future of Cambodia, I would like to kindly suggest the next year programme to increase the number of Cambodian scholarship awardees.

2. Mr. Ananta Hagabean (Indonesia)

I am so delighted to become one of the students in one of the universities in Beijing. Brainstorming and discussing with Chinese students was so exiting, sometimes we need to learn many things from them, learn from their culture, spirit, hardworking, etc. In addition, it was amazing to study together in China with many foreign students from around the world, so we can know and learn many cultures and languages from each student.

3. Miss Julia Zhu (Singapore)

I am honored to be a Singaporean and a holder of the ASEAN University Network (AUN)-China Scholarship to study in Peking University, China. Majoring in International Affairs (double degree with London School of Economics and Political Science, LSE) rewarded me the opportunity to build on my undergraduate training from Fudan University to further learn about the different systems around the world and international organizations and their roles in our present lives. AUN perfectly represents the definition of promoting cross-border interaction and mutual understanding by supporting student in their pursuit of higher degrees. The one thing I enjoyed most about being an AUN Scholar is the chance to live with fellow China Government Scholars; this unique experience provided holistic growth and development for me as I dwell deeper into social issues that entrap us today in China as well as potential boundaries we may face in ASEAN as an entity sometime in the future. The entire learning experience AUN has provided has been bountiful both in and out of classrooms. I believe as AUN-China Scholars, we will go on to carry with us what we have picked up during our time in China and benefit the populace of ASEAN.

4. Ms. Hongsuda Buacan (Thailand)

Personally, the best experience I have learned from the programme in which I do value as a crucial key of success is patience. Being patient during the preparation of document application strengthens my capability to manage, prioritize, analyze, create, and arrange the importance of document package. Currently, I have realized that being patient is very useful. However, it seems inadequate once my academic life started because I do need to be much more patient compared to what I had when preparing for the papers application. It looks tough and requires more, though it is really beneficial to my life now and ever.

5. Mr. Paramate Payomrat (Thailand)

The immense territory and highly complex topography of China approximately 9,600,000 km<sup>2</sup> cover almost eco-tone that exists in this world. From the Eastern shore line along the Yellow Sea and the East China Sea to the density civilization in the alluvial plains of the central-east (the Yellow River and the Yangtze River) till the major mountain ranges, high plateaus (Tibetan plateau) feature arid landscapes (the Gobi Desert) of the western, from sub tropical hills and low mountain ranges of the southern to the edges of the Inner Mongolian plateau in the northern (broad grasslands predominate) and alpine mountains ranges in the northeastern, this makes China a very attractive place for natural science study with advanced technology and modern facilities to support whatever your research field with a good experience from traveling around the fascinated scenic place in China.

IN BRIEF:

Fostering ASEAN Future Leaders 2014/2015 is the continuation of the previous programme called “ASEAN Leaders Fostering 2013”. Annually, 20 students from 10 ASEAN countries are selected to participate the programme for 1 academic year in Daejeon University. Daejeon University (DJU) and ASEAN University Network (AUN) launched the international exchange between ASEAN and Republic of Korea since 2002. The programme received very positive response and have had active participation from all ASEAN nations since its inception and the long standing continuation and sustainability of the programme for more than a decade is a tangible proof. Including this year’s batch, the programme has already 227 alumni from 12 batches in 10 ASEAN Member States.

This year's Fostering ASEAN Future Leaders offered full scholarships to undergraduate students in the field of Information and Communications Technology, Social Sciences and Humanities. The scholarship covered the tuition fees, accident insurance, accommodation, meals, round-trip ticket and USD 300 monthly stipend of the students.

Moreover, the students were given a chance to attend a 2-month internship programme at the leading organizations in Korea, namely United Nations-Asian and Pacific Training Centre for Information and Communication Technology for Development (UN APCICT), Korea Advanced Institute of Science and Technology (KIST), ASEAN-Korea Centre, Korea Institute of Nuclear Safety (KINS), Korea Nuclear International Cooperation Foundation (KONICOF), Korea Atomic Energy Research Institute, etc. This is a very good opportunity not just to gain academic edge but will help students gain skills that will prepare them in their future careers. And this will lead to not just personal development of the students but in effect, the development of the entire region as a whole.

IN BRIEF:

The AUN and ASEAN+3 Educational Forum and Young Speakers Contest is one of the flagship youth activities of AUN. It is aimed to promote mutual understanding, relations, and friendships among the youth of ASEAN+3 countries, and to provide a platform where they can voice their concerns and perspectives about ASEAN+3 community building and cooperation.

The week-long programme featured 5 activities:

- (1) Educational Forum
- (2) Young Speakers Contest
- (3) Special Lectures
- (4) Group Discussions on ASEAN+3 Issues
- (5) Cultural Excursion

The Educational Forum is a platform in which the participating students assume the roles of key policy makers of their respective countries, present their positions and discuss major issues on the regional agenda under the rule of a parliamentary procedure. The forum concludes with a “Youth Joint Statement” which contains youth recommendations on key issues affecting the region. The Joint Statement will then be tabled at related ASEAN meetings through the ASEAN Secretariat and Senior Officials Meeting on Youth (SOMY).

The Young Speakers Contest is a speech competition which aims to raise profile of ASEAN+3 region among the next generation of leaders and to deepen their awareness and understanding on their region’s cooperation and future viability.

DELIVERABLES:

The 12th ASEAN and 2nd ASEAN+3 Youth Cultural Forum was hosted by Universitas Indonesia, Indonesia, on 7-12 September 2014 under the theme “Welcoming ASEAN Community through Cultural Diversity.” The forum welcomed 98 delegates from 18 member universities in 11 countries namely Brunei, Cambodia, China, Indonesia, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand and Vietnam. The six-day forum allowed delegates to share and exchange the art and culture of their respective countries through the performance they prepared and cultural activities.

The host also introduced the delegates to “Angklung,” a traditional music instrument originated in West Java. In 2010, Angklung was declared UNESCO’s “Masterpiece of the Oral and Intangible Heritage of Humanity.” The Angklung lesson was conducted by Saung Angklung Udjo in Bandung and the dance workshop “Poco Poco” was led by Mr. Toby Rorimpandey, a famous Indonesia choreographer on the following day. In the closing ceremony, two groups of delegates consolidated to perform the Aungklung and Poco Poco dance respectively as the finale.

The 13th ASEAN and 3rd ASEAN+3 Youth Cultural Forum will be hosted by De La Salle University, Philippines, on 6 – 11 September 2015.

IN BRIEF:

To promote the community conscious of its ties of history, aware of its cultural heritage and bound by a common regional identity—as emphasised in the ASEAN vision 2020—the ASEAN Youth Cultural Forum has become one of AUN’s annual activities dedicated to young people who are talented in art and culture. The activity aims to capture the essence of cultural heritage, its influences and development in Southeast Asian region in order to promote better understanding and appreciation of the ASEAN culture. In addition, as the forum is designed to provide a unique opportunity for the youths to reflect their deepest values of culture and to gain knowledge and experiences, it would complement and would be useful for their studies and personal interests.

In accordance with the successful establishment of the “ASEAN+3 University Network in 2012”, this year’s forum, hence, invited member universities from China, Japan and Korea to participate since 2013. This forum also helps strengthening the mutual understanding of cultural diversity and similarity, friendship and cooperation among ASEAN Member States and East Asian nations.

The six-day forum is composed of four main activities:

(1) Lecture: The delegates will be given lectures on the evolution and fundamental idea of art and culture in the region.

(2) Workshop: This is an opportunity for delegates to learn and to be trained by the host country an exclusive piece of their performing arts.

(3) Cultural Performance: Each group of delegates is requested to present their own cultural performances to the audience from every participating university

(4) Excursion: The excursion offers the delegates a chance to explore the host country's culture and tradition.

Each AUN participating university will nominate four students and one faculty member to join this gathering. After all activities provided by the host, all delegates will perform a finale together at the closing ceremony which is normally organised as a gala night.

IN BRIEF:

Developing leaders amongst the youths of the region is seen as a very important step in ensuring a bright future not only for their respective countries but in effect the whole region as well. For this very reason, in 2012, ASEAN University Network with the initiative from Nanyang Technological University in Singapore launched the first ASEAN Student Leaders Forum. Its main objective was to create a platform for student leaders in ASEAN particularly the leaders of the University Student Council/Union to share their experiences and opinions that are pertinent to their student organizations and youths in general. In addition, the forum seeks to promote cooperation among student leaders in the region to encourage exchange of ideas, best practices and collective bonds among the future leaders of the region.

Furthermore, adjacent to the students' activities, the forum also provides an opportunity for the Vice-Presidents/Directors/Officers for Student Affairs Unit to meet and discuss policies and administrative support that they can help their students with when they go back to their universities and implement the projects that they have planned to achieve during the forum.

IN BRIEF:

Each year, the AUN Secretariat Office in Bangkok offers internship opportunity to many students from universities in ASEAN and dialogue partners who are interested in learning more about ASEAN.

With the aim to promote capacity building and foster the sense of ASEANness among students, the AUN Internship Programme provides interns with training and practice in research and project management. Upon joining the AUN Internship Programme, students are assigned the position of intern (AUN Intern-Rank 3). After an internal evaluation by the AUN Secretariat, they will be promoted to the position of Research Assistant (AUN Intern-Rank 2) and Research and Programme Development Assistant (AUN Intern-Rank 1) respectively based on their knowledge, skills and competencies.

“In my time here at AUN, I had an amazing experience. I learnt what no classroom could ever teach me as well as rounded me as an individual. I was scared at first, not knowing if I could work in the ‘real world’ but this internship allowed me to learn, share as well as create. Not only that but having such friendly colleagues eased the transition as well as taught me so much which I am grateful for.”

Dk. Hajah Sarinah Binti Haji Yahya
Brunei Darussalam

During my internship, AUN made me feel important as I feel a sense of responsibility where people count on me to carry out assignments and tasks. I have learnt many new skills and what it takes to be an independent person. Being an intern at AUN allows you to step out of your comfort zone and make new friends from different parts of ASEAN.”

Wan Syamimi Alya'ia Fuzah Kulkiflee
Brunei Darussalam

The word “Camaraderie” best captures my experience at AUN. I am privileged to have the opportunity to not only learn new skills through different assignments, but also foster friendship with amicable and compassionate colleagues.

Siravich Sincharoenkul

It is the most fruitful and wonderful internship I have ever experienced in my university life. Not only it is an internship, but also really a two-month independent cultural exchange overseas. I pretty love it, enjoy it much.”

What is ACTS?

ACTS Comprises of 3 Components:

- Grading scales
- Online list of available courses
- Online application system

ACTS will be a student-centered system based on students' workloads in terms of the achievement of learning outcomes. The system has been designed in order to accommodate differences in use among AUN universities in grading conversion systems when students participate in the exchange programme at an AUN Member University for the duration of 1-2 semesters.

How Does ACTS Work?

By applying for the ACTS, credits that students earn during the exchange study at the Host University will be collected and will be automatically transferred back to the Home University when the exchange period ends.

- Students will receive the credits assigned from a course that they earn in the Host University during the exchange period.

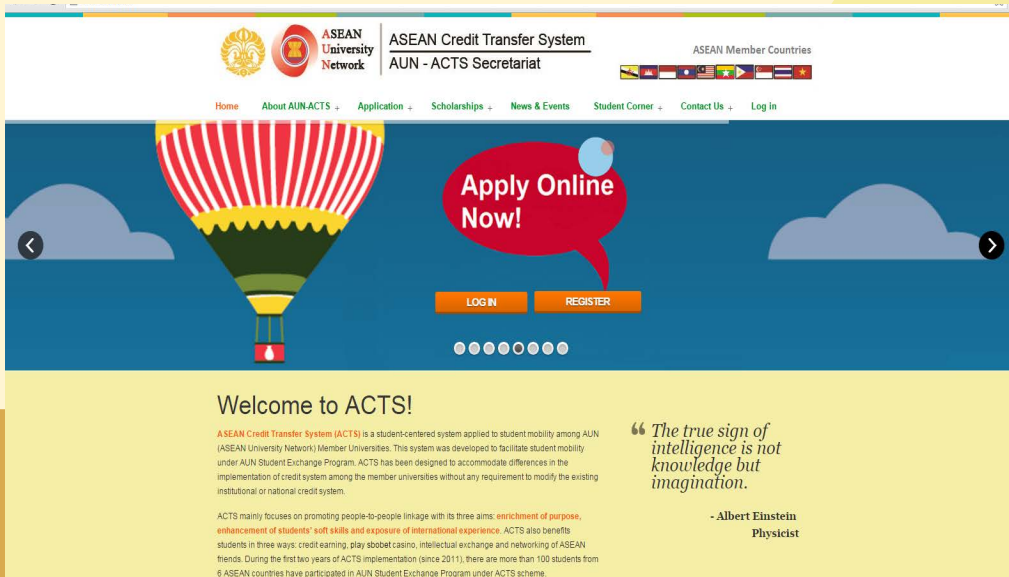

ACTS Grade	Description	Normal Distribution Guide (if necessary)
A	Excellent	10%
B	Very Good	25%
C	Good	30%
D	Satisfactory	25%
E/F	Fail	10%

The screenshot shows the homepage of the ASEAN Credit Transfer System (ACTS). At the top, there are logos for ASEAN University Network and AUN - ACTS Secretariat. The main navigation menu includes Home, About AUN-ACTS, Application, Scholarships, News & Events, Student Corner, Contact Us, and Log In. A central banner features a hot air balloon and a red speech bubble that says "Apply Online Now!". Below the speech bubble are "LOG IN" and "REGISTER" buttons. The page also displays "ASEAN Member Countries" with a row of flags. The main content area has a yellow background with the text "Welcome to ACTS!" and a quote by Albert Einstein: "The true sign of intelligence is not knowledge but imagination." Below the quote is the text: "ACTS mainly focuses on promoting people-to-people linkage with its three aims: enrichment of purpose, enhancement of students' soft skills and exposure of international experience. ACTS also benefits students in three ways: credit earning, play sbobet casino, intellectual exchange and networking of ASEAN friends. During the first two years of ACTS implementation (since 2011), there are more than 100 students from 6 ASEAN countries have participated in AUN Student Exchange Program under ACTS scheme."

AUN - Quality Assurance Timeline

The AUN-QA Guidelines and Manual

The AUN-QA Guidelines and Manual have served well as a tool for AUN member universities to implement and assess their quality and quality assurance system since their publication in 2004-2006. The AUN-QA Manual has also been translated into Chinese and Vietnamese edition. In 2011, AUN established an AUN-QA Documentation Review Committee and Procedure to keep its documents updated and relevant. The original AUN-QA for programme level was revised to enhance implementation and assessment efficiency and effectiveness. The revised AUN-QA model for programme level encompasses the following 15 criteria:

1. Expected learning outcomes
2. Programme specification
3. Programme structure and content
4. Teaching and learning strategy
5. Student assessment
6. Academic staff quality
7. Support staff quality
8. Student quality
9. Student advice and support
10. Facilities and infrastructure
11. Quality assurance of teaching and learning process
12. Staff development activities
13. Stakeholders feedback
14. Output
15. Stakeholders satisfaction
